PRESS RELEASE

Clifford Chance Prague Association appoints two new Counsels and Of Counsel

Clifford Chance Prague Association is pleased to announce the promotion of Veronika Kinclová and Tomáš Brožek to Counsel and the appointment of Vladimír Rýlich as Of Counsel, effective 1 May 2026. These appointments recognise their long-term contribution to the firm and their respective practice areas.

- Tomáš Brožek, who joined the firm in 2022, focuses on restructuring and insolvency, with particular experience in advising creditors in out-of-court restructurings, insolvency proceedings and related disputes. He is also increasingly involved in litigation and enforcement matters connected with financially distressed situations and distressed M&A matters.
- Veronika Kinclová has been with Clifford Chance since 2013 and focuses on M&A, employment law & compliance. She manages M&A transactions and provides day-to-day advisory including employment and regulatory compliance, DEI, data privacy, and conduct-related matters.
- Vladimír Rýlich, who joined the firm in 2007, specialises in capital markets and financial regulation. He advises on IPOs, bond issuances and other financing transactions, and has extensive experience with Czech and EU regulatory requirements.

Miloš Felgr, Managing Partner of Clifford Chance Prague Association, commented: “We are delighted to recognise Veronika, Tomáš and Vladimír for their achievements and ongoing contribution to the firm. Each of them brings a distinct strength to our practice – whether in corporate advisory, restructuring and litigation, or capital markets – and they are all highly valued by our clients. Their appointments reflect both the quality of their work and our confidence in their continued development.”
